

Schools as Community Hubs

Lead Partner Readiness Assessment

	YES (3)	TO SOME EXTENT (2)	NOT YET (1)	DON'T KNOW (0)	NO (0)
1. Community Partner leadership is informed about current school initiatives in our community.
2. Community Partner has informal working relationships with key school leaders in our community.
3. Community Partner has formal working relationships with key school leaders in the community (i.e., memorandum of understanding, written contract).
4. Community Partner has school leaders on its board of directors and/or advisory groups.
5. Community Partner is represented and/or actively participates in school leadership team or other leadership body at a school.
6. Community Partner leadership has examined the advantages and disadvantages of working in partnership with schools.
7. Community Partner's organizational culture aligns with the culture of the (potential) school partner.
8. Community Partner is open to including all stakeholders (students, parents, community partners, community leaders) in planning.
9. Community Partner is open to policy changes to support students, partners, parents.
10. Community Partner's programs are aligned with school or district priorities.
11. Community Partner is willing to contribute at least $5,000 cash to support implementation of Schools as Community Hubs strategy.
12. How would your organization determine the priorities for the Hub community you plan to serve?					