The rights of homeless parents and their homeless students:

- Your child may stay in the school he or she was in before becoming homeless or enroll in a school where the child is living for the time being;
- You may make this choice of schools with the best interests of your child in mind;
- Your child must receive a plan for transportation;
- You can expect to enroll your child in school without delay, even if you do not have paperwork, such as your child's birth certificate or medical records;
- Your child has the right to receive free meals'
- Your child must receive the same special programs and services that other children receive, including special education, migrant education and vocational education;
- Your child must receive the same public education other children receive, including preschool;
- Your child cannot be separated from other students in a different school or different program because he or she is homeless;
- After being placed in permanent housing, your child may stay in his or her original school for the rest of the school year. This will provide stability for your child.
